

CABINET MEMBERS AND THEIR FAMILIES RETURNING TO TOWN

All of President's Advisers To Be Here for First Time in Months Today.

GREGORYS DUE TONIGHT

Secretary and Mrs. Lansing
Are Back From Their Home in Watertown.

With the return of the Attorney General and Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory from New York this evening, the entire Cabinet and their wives will all be in Washington for the first time in many months.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing returned this morning from New York, where they went on Tuesday immediately after the Secretary voted in Watertown, N. Y.

Secretary Daniels returned from Raleigh, N. C., yesterday morning, and joined Mrs. Daniels, who was unable to go South with him.

Secretary and Mrs. Baker arrived yesterday from Ohio, and Secretary and Mrs. Lane came to Washington yesterday, but will only remain a few days. They will return to Atlantic City at the end of the week.

Secretary Wilson, who has been campaigning in the West, returned to Washington last Saturday after an absence of several months, but left again Monday for his home in Blossburg, Pa., where he voted. He returned again Tuesday.

Secretary and Mrs. Redfield returned from Brooklyn, where they have been for the last fortnight, late last evening. Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, Secretary and Mrs. Houston, and Secretary and Mrs. Burleson were the only ones who did not leave Washington for the election.

Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo did not go to Shadow Lawn to head the election returns, as was generally reported.

Dinner Hosts

Commander and Mrs. William W. Galbraith were hosts at dinner last evening at the Chevy Chase Club in honor of their house guest, Mrs. Valentine Chapel, of New London, Conn. Their other guests were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Leigh Palmer, Col. and Mrs. Mason Gule, Major Allie Williams, Commander and Mrs. William N. Jeffers, Commander and Mrs. William O. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Gary, Mr. and Mrs. G. Thomas Dunlop, Mr. and Mrs. Beeve Lewis, Paymaster Omar Conger and Frederick Michel.

The marriage of Miss Martha Hanby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hanby, to Frederick C. Dittmar, of Philadelphia, took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of the Rev. L. M. Chambers. The bride wore traveling suit of blue chiffon broadcloth with black collar and cuffs. Her hat was of black velvet and had a crown of gold lace encircled by a band of fur. With a single white ribbon she wore a corsage of blue roses. There were no attendants, and the bride and bridegroom left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to the Adirondack Mountains. Their future home will be at 5218 Webster street, West Philadelphia.

Floor Committee Chairman

Ralph Snowden Hill has been chosen chairman of the floor committee for the reception and alumnae ball to be given on the evening of November 27, in the ballroom of the Willard, by the Washington alumnae in honor of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, which meets in Baltimore the last of the month.

The officers, delegates, and alumnae will leave Baltimore via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at 9:45 a. m., November 27, reaching Washington station at 10:45 a. m. In time for the reception to be held at McMahon Hall at the Catholic University at 11 o'clock, to be followed by a luncheon between 12 and 2 p. m. In the afternoon they will go to the White House and Pan-American building, and are invited to visit the Library of Congress between the hours of 5 and 11 p. m., when they will return to the alumnae ball at the Willard and receive there.

The closing registration meeting will be held next Tuesday, November 14, at 8 p. m., at the Willard. All alumnae and their guests and the invited members of the Washington Catholic schools are invited to attend this special meeting, and will have the privilege of registering for their invitation for November 27. Miss Nellie Johnson, one of this season's debutantes, is chairman of the young ladies' committee.

Groomsman's Dinner

Maj. Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett will chaperon the dinner party which the groomsman who will attend Major Thomas Holcomb, U. S. M. C., at his marriage Saturday, to Miss Beatrice Clover, will give tonight at the Army and Navy Club before the wedding dance. The dinner is in compliment to Major Holcomb and his bride, and the guests will include only members of the wedding party. There will be eighteen covers.

Lieut. Commander J. M. Enoch, U. S. N., who has been stationed in Washington for several years, will leave December 1 to take command of the Chicago, with headquarters at Philadelphia.

Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker will be honor guests at the dinner which Col. and Mrs. Charles W. Kutz will give tonight at the Army and Navy Club before the wedding dance. There will be eighteen covers.

Another interesting party at the club this evening will be a Dutch treat dinner which Commander and Mrs. W. W. Galbraith have arranged.

Marriage in Claymont

A wedding of interest to Washington took place today in Claymont, when Miss Barbara Carr Bispham and Robert took place today in Claymont, when married. The ceremony was performed at the Church of the Ascension by Rev. Gibson Ganss, pastor of the church. Miss Bispham is the daughter of Capt. Harrison A. Bispham, U. S. N., retired, and of the late Mrs. Barbara Carr Bispham. Mr. Wetherill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wetherill, of Chester.

Mrs. Norris Mumper, of Arcola, N. J., was matron of honor, and the maid of honor was Miss Betta Colon, of New York. The bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen E. Wetherill, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Eleanor Bispham, a cousin of the bride; Miss Katherine Knight, a daughter of Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, U. S. N., of Newport, R. I.; and Miss Marjorie Kyle, of Wilmington, Del. The best man was Luther H. Graves, 23, of Bennington,

A BRIDE OF YESTERDAY

MRS. EDWAN P. CORBETT,
Formerly Miss Marguerite O'Toole.

Yt. and the ushers were John L. Wetherill, J. E. Price, John R. Sprout, and William R. P. Oost, of Chester; G. R. Meade, of Ocala, N. Y.; and Edward K. Bispham, Jr., of Claymont, Del.

After the ceremony a small reception was given by Miss Bispham's father at Miraflores, the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ida Carr Addicks, at Claymont.

Miss Bispham was a debutante last autumn.

Captain Bispham entertained at supper last evening in Claymont in compliment to his daughter and her fiancé.

Interesting Wedding

Rock Maple Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George von Lengerke Meyer, at Hamilton, Mass., will be the scene of an interesting marriage today when Miss Edith Deacon will become the bride of Henry G. Gray, of New York. Immediately following the wedding ceremony there will be a small reception and wedding breakfast.

The engagement was announced recently in Newport, where Miss Deacon has passed a great deal of her time. She was introduced to society there at the home of her step-grandmother, Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin, widow of Rear Admiral Baldwin, U. S. N., and she is also well known in Europe, being a sister of Princess Alice, daughter of the late King of the Netherlands, who lives abroad with her mother, Mr. Gray is a son of the late Judge John Clinton Gray, of the Court of Appeals.

Married at 5 Today

Miss Clara Velma Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amherst W. Barber and Dr. Harold Lucian Palmer will be married at 5 o'clock this evening at the First Congregational Church. An elaborate musical program to be rendered by William Stansfield, B. F. R. C. O., will begin at 4:40 o'clock. A reception for the bride party and a few out-of-town guests will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride.

Hair Tinting All the Rage

The Absolute and Utter Harmlessness of "Brownatone" Has Made Hair Tinting Safe and Easy.

You need not tolerate gray, streaked or faded hair another day. It takes but a few moments to apply "Brownatone" with your comb or brush and it will give your hair the beautiful shade you most desire.

Will not rub or wash off. It is guaranteed to penetrate to the roots of the hair and stay there, giving a permanent "dye" and so-called "retainers."

Any shade from light golden-brown to black.

Sample and booklet sent by mail on receipt of 10c. "Brownatone" is sold by leading drug stores, in two sizes—25c and $1.00. Order direct from The Kenton Pharmacy Co., 60 E. Pike St., Covington, Ky. If your druggist will not supply you, you will save yourself much trouble by refusing to accept a substitute. No samples at dealers. "Brownatone" is sold by mail direct. Mention shade desired.

For sale in Washington by People's Drug stores, O'Donnell's Drug stores and other leading dealers.—Adv.

PRINCE AND BRIDE TO SAIL SATURDAY

Couple Leave Washington,
Where They Visited Mrs.
Draper, for New York.

Prince Boncompagni and his bride, who was formerly Miss Margaret Draper, left Washington today, after a short visit with the bride's mother, Mrs. William F. Draper, for New York, and will be at the Ritz-Carlton until they sail for France on the steamer Espagnole on Saturday. They plan to go direct from Paris to their future home in Italy. Mrs. Draper accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, and is to see them safely on board. She will stay in New York several days after the departure of the young couple, returning to Washington some time next week.

Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, Mrs. Garrison McClinck, Mrs. Robert E. Peary, and Viscountess de Sibur are some of the additional patronesses for the musicale to be given at Raucher's, on Monday, November 13, for the benefit of the wounded soldiers of France.

Visiting His Brother

Dr. J. R. Torralbas, first secretary of the Cuban legation in Washington, is in New York at the Hotel Astor on a visit of a few days to his brother, J. A. Torralbas, who is chancellor to the Cuban consulate in New York, and they were among those attending the supper dance at the grand ball room of the Hotel Astor Tuesday night watching the return of the election, which were given on a large scale on one side of the ball room. Dr. Torralbas will return to Washington this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dunn, of Washington, are at the Hotel Astor in New York, for a ten days' visit. They were at a dinner party in the Hotel Tuesday evening, when they were seen "Arms and the Girl," playing at the Fulton Theater.

Rear Admiral A. F. Fechter, U. S. N., who has been with his family in Newport, left there today to join his daughter, Mrs. Fechter, at the New York navy yard today.

Mrs. Calvin De Witt, widow of Brigadier General De Witt, is spending the winter in Texas with her son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. R. M. Blanchard. Major Blanchard is in charge of a hospital at Del Rio, Mrs. Blanchard spent last winter in Washington with her mother.

Invitations were received this morning for the reception which Mr. and Mrs. Nevil Monroe Hopkins will give for their daughter, Miss Anne Dorsey Hopkins, on November 20, from 4 to 7 o'clock, at their residence in Bancroft place.

The birthday anniversary of the King of Italy falls on Saturday, but owing to the war there will be no formal celebration at the Italian embassy.

Miss Pierce married.

Cards have been received today announcing the marriage of Miss Lilyan Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brook Pierce, to Lieut. Hargate Clifford Pierce, U. S. M. C., yesterday at noon.

The wedding, which was very quiet, was performed by the Rev. Father Brennan, of Holy Trinity Church, at the home of the bride in P street. It was witnessed by only the immediate family of the young couple and a few intimate friends.

The bride wore a smart brown traveling suit trimmed with moleskin and a becoming hat of the same color. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. George (Laud) DeNeale, wife of Lieut. DeNeale, U. S. M. C., Charles Brooke Pierce, Jr., of Chicago, brother of the bride, was best man. The guests were entertained after the ceremony at an informal reception. Later in the afternoon, Lieut. and Mrs. Pierce left for a Northern trip, before going to California, where Lieut. Pierce has recently been ordered.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Falmesack for a reception at their home in Massachusetts avenue on December 2, from 4 to 7 o'clock. There will be dancing.

Weeping Bandit Gets Coin

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 8.—A weeping bandit, seeking money to get to his family in New York, held up Fred Bunn, of North Minneapolis, and robbed him of $30. Bunn said the tears rolled down the robber's cheeks as he took the money and told him that he had to do it. Bunn declared that the man was desperate in spite of his tears, and he believed he would have killed any victim who resisted him.

Hot Tea Breaks A Cold—Try This

Get a small package of Hamburg Brest Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, pour a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a tea-cup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Adv.

MRS. ROBT. KENNEDY GIVES A LUNCHEON

Mrs. Horace Macfarland and Mrs. Walter Croseley Are Guests of Honor.

Mrs. Kennedy, wife of Medical Inspector Robert M. Kennedy, U. S. N., in command of the Naval Hospital, entertained at an informal luncheon of ten covers today in compliment to Mrs. Horace Macfarland and her house guest, Mrs. Walter Croseley, of New York, wife of Captain Croseley, U. S. N.

Some of the other guests were Mrs. William C. Braisted, wife of Surgeon General Braisted, U. S. N., and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Braisted, wife of Lieutenant Braisted, U. S. N. Mrs. Macfarland entertained at dinner last evening at the Chevy Chase Club in honor of Mrs. Croseley. The other guests were Colonel Hayaud, the military attaché of the Argentine embassy; Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy, Lieut. and Mrs. Albert Church, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kauffmann, Miss Dolores Crawford, Miss Natalie Driggs, Miss Helen Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Dawson, Commander Henry J. Ziegler, Lieut. U. K. Coman, Dr. John D. Thomas, George O. Totten, Jr., Michael Jacobs, Mr. Richardson, and Mr. Risotto. The decorations were yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

Mrs. Macfarland's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McConihe, will entertain at dinner Saturday night at the Chevy Chase Club in compliment to Mrs. Croseley.

Entertains at Dinner

Miss Edith Gracie will entertain at dinner Saturday night for her house guest, Miss Esther Jean Buchanan, of Philadelphia, who arrived in Washington yesterday. On Sunday Miss Gracie will be hostess at a tea at her home in Sixteenth street in honor of Miss Buchanan. Next week Miss Gracie will go to Philadelphia to visit Mrs. W. Montague Lyett and attend the debut of Miss Elizabeth Brinton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Brinton, at the Bellevue-Stratford, on November 10.

WASHINGTONIANS TO JOIN IN Y.M.C.A. FETE

Many Washingtonians are to attend the fifteenth anniversary celebration of the organization of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. in New York tonight at 6:30. Representatives of many local organizations will meet at the Waldorf for dinner.
The international committee was founded in Washington. One of the organizers was D. Chauncey Langdon, for many years a resident of this city. The committee had headquarters here for the first three years of its existence.

It then moved around to different locations for several years, after which New York became permanent headquarters.

The following will attend from this city: Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Corby, Mr.
and Mrs. Clifford K. Berryman, Mr.
and Mrs. Holcomb G. Johnson, James L. Wilmetts, Miles M. Shand, Dr.
Winthrop Smith, George H. Winslow, George L. Goodwin, W. C. Hillside, E. S. Wolfe, Clarence L. Harding, and William Knowles Cooper.

At 80, Good Farm Hand.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Nov. 9.—Joseph Nalley, of Smoketown, who has just celebrated his eightieth birthday, a lifelong resident of Washington county, recently finished eleven days apple picking in Edward Line's orchards at Keedysville and is husking corn, averaging from fifteen to twenty shocks per day.
About a month ago he cut 300 shocks of corn in one day.

FIVE MINUTES! NO INDIGESTION, NO GAS OR ANY STOMACH MISERY

Don't suffer! Here's the quickest, surest relief known for Dyspepsia, Sourness, Heartburn or an Upset Stomach—Try it!

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

22 GRAIN TRIANGLES OF
STOPS INDIGESTION
IN FIVE MINUTES.
SETTLES UPSET STOMACHS

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if sour, gassy and upset and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weakened, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.
